

GRADE ONE SOCIAL STUDIES I can

- I can divide time into categories.
- I can be a responsible community member.
- I can compare how my needs are met with the needs of people in the past.
- I understand the area in which I live affects what I do and how I live.
- I can understand that people live in different ways based on their culture.
- I can make choices based on the resources that are available to me.
- I can identify jobs where goods are produced or services are provided.
- I can understand that people trade or use money to get goods or services.
- I can find and name places on a map.
- I can identify landforms, bodies of water, and structures in different places in our country.