

For Blizzard Bag days. Dr. Herzig Economics

Using the form we established in class, you will be responsible for looking up your stocks, reporting their closing prices and answering the question "Of how your stocks went this week?"

You are also responsible for finding good articles about your stocks, which will include the site the article was found on and to write up a good, solid two paragraph report on each of your 10 stocks.

You should be implementing the form we created in class to complete this assignment.

The link below is to be read and the worksheet attached is to be completed.

For day two, look up all your stocks and summarize three articles you have found on three of your 10 stocks.

For day two, do the same thing, look up your ten stocks and write three more articles and three reports on different stocks.

Please make sure you have at home, your stock paper.
